During the last several months we had the opportunity to sea trial four boats with Yamaha outboard motors in the 200 to 250 hp range. Two sets of these were on Grady-White 272 Sailfish, and another on a Pursuit 2855. This makes for a total of eight engines ranging in years from 1995 to 1999, which gave us a pretty good look at how these engines are performing over time.

I have a 1999 Yamaha 250 HP OX66 model outboard. The last several times out it seems to be smoking more than usual. It has about five hours use since the annual spring tune-up including (gapped to specification) spark plugs, all lubrications, changed RACOR filter, fresh (non-ethanol) gas.

Yamaha 250 OX66 Excessive Smoking - Moderated Discussion Areas

V-Max HPDI. I've had a 2002 150 V-Max HPDI for about a year and a half now and it is the sweetest running outboard I've ever owned. I don't find the fuel usage excessive, it starts INSTANTLY all the time and has been completely problem free. I'd suggest using Yamalube, Ring-Free and a new set of plugs each spring after burning out the fogging oil.
